

CEMUS

CLIMATE CHANGE LEADERSHIP

Power, Politics & Culture

CEMUS

Dear Student,

Welcome to Climate Change Leadership 2022!

Climate change leadership is a term we hear often, used in the political arena, in media and in academia! But what does it really mean? In this course, we will explore the concepts of leadership as well as gain a better understanding of climate change. Identifying what knowledge and skills define climate change leaders and how they can be acquired? We are excited to have you with us as we explore these concepts and questions over the next term to gain a better understanding that will hopefully enable us to create beneficial change.

Registration

Before you take the course you need to register. For information about how and when to register, and more information about your studies, visit www.uu.se/student.

Course start date

The first class of the course will take place on Monday, January 17th, at 10:15 in DM235 Småland, (<https://link.mazemap.com/8FM6K7Ze>). If you are not familiar with the university rooms here is a link to help you find your way (<https://www.uu.se/en/about-uu/university-area/>). For the rest of the semester, classes run weekly on Mondays and Wednesdays from 10:15 to 12:00 (CET) rooms and times may vary please refer to the schedule.

CEMUS Semester Start-up and Open Events

At CEMUS we start every semester with open, inspirational and introductory conversations for all courses and to a public audience. This year's start-up conversation will take place on January 17th, 18:15-20:00, with Alan Atkisson as a guest, in person see map here <https://link.mazemap.com/5LUoKL5z> or via Zoom <https://uu-se.zoom.us/j/62319834776> Meeting ID: 623 1983 4776. For more information, see <http://www.cemus.uu.se/jan-17-alan-atkisson-2022/>.

CEMUS

Examination, literature, and course structure

*The student is examined through written preparation for (4 credits) and active participation in seminars and workshops (3 credits), and through written documentation (7 credits) and oral presentation (1 credit) of a project.

The course is worth 15 credits (ECTS) and is thus given at 50% of a full-time study workload, which equals around 20 hours per week. Classes run weekly on Mondays and Wednesdays from 10:15 to 12:00. Classes are planned to be held in person at Uppsala University check schedule for rooms.

Climate Change Leadership 2022 uses mandatory course books and additional learning materials provided on Studium, including texts, podcasts and videos. More information on course content, assignments and the schedule, can be found in Studium and on the CEMUS course website.

Online Environment

The course page in Studium will be the online environment, where we will post all information and updates, share resources, post assignments, and assign groups. Please visit Studium regularly to make sure you have not missed any important information. You will need an account for Studium, so please arrange one as soon as possible. You can find out how to get your account and other information at <https://www.uu.se/en/students/new-students/>.

Information about this course can also be found on the CEMUS website, at <http://www.cemus.uu.se/ccl>. If you have any questions regarding the course, please contact us at salman.majeed@cemus.uu.se and nicola.donohoe@cemus.uu.se, or via Studium.

We're excited to embark on this Climate Change Leadership journey together. We have many ideas to experiment with co-creating a course that is engaging and fun, as well as educational and inspiring. Looking forward to meeting all of you soon in the classroom!

Salman & Nicola